Viviers village day with organ concert
in the Cathedral

Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4

Gentle walkers, please join Group 6

Viviers climbs a hill above the river, crowned by 12th-century St. Vincent's Cathedral. It happens to be the smallest cathedral in France, but it contains a marvellous organ. Take a seat under the soaring vaults and listen while a local organist demonstrates just how fine an instrument it is before you begin wandering down through the town with your guide.
