Avignon walking tour and the Palace of the Popes

Groups 1, 2 and 3

Gentle walkers, please join Group 6

It's hard to believe, looking at the charming cafés and entertaining street performers in the Clock Tower Square, that this lively scene owes its existence to a 15th-century siege. This area was the heart of medieval Avignon (and the site of the original Roman town), crowded with cottages and narrow streets, until a pope had it all demolished in order to give his troops a clearer field of fire.
